It is the intention of LifeWorks School of Coaching to provide a number of partial scholarships to worthy students of each entering class. In order to properly assess which students are awarded this financial assistance it is imperative that specific information be made available to the school for evaluation. You will need to provide financial statements demonstrating need. These should include 1) a copy of your most recent income tax filings, 2) a copy of your most recent pay stub, and 3) any additional forms that will enable the school to properly evaluate your financial need. 4) In addition, you must provide a brief statement summarizing your current income and expenditures.

Secondly, additional factors are taken into consideration before partial scholarships are awarded. These include 1) a written statement outlining your commitment to complete the entire program, 2) how you plan to serve the community with the skill sets that are acquired from completing the program, and 3) a description as to how you intend to provide ongoing support to the school during your enrollment and after graduation.

Some of our current and past students provide an exchange of energy in many diverse ways to help offset the cost involved in providing scholarships, and contribute to the well being of the LifeWorks School of Coaching community. This can include help with school promotion by assisting with informational events the school provides throughout the year, recruitment of new students, administrative assistance, marketing efforts, and exchanging any other special skills that they may bring to the program that benefits the LifeWorks community. It is essential that any student receiving a partial scholarship provide some form(s) of assistance to the school in exchange for financial assistance.

Please sign and date this form and all additional forms and statements that you are attaching. Any partial scholarship that is awarded may be withdrawn if any information provided is false and/or exchange agreements are withdrawn.

I agree to the conditions as herein stated, and am applying for a partial scholarship for the LifeWorks School of Coaching class that begins
